Where do I live
My story and why I need a sponsor.	I stay with my parents. My father has a strange disease which the Doctors are still looking for. He has severe headache, at times he collapses. His health in case of any bad news, he collapses or very good news in case he feels very happy still he gets too much headache and collapses. He went to the TCT Scan but still they've not yet found out. My mother is a house wife and we're six siblings. Our dad tries hard to look for something to do because he's a carpenter but the disease now has become a major problem. We all depend on him for our Education and home basic needs, I'm praying to the almighty God to give a parent to help me in my studies. God bless you.
